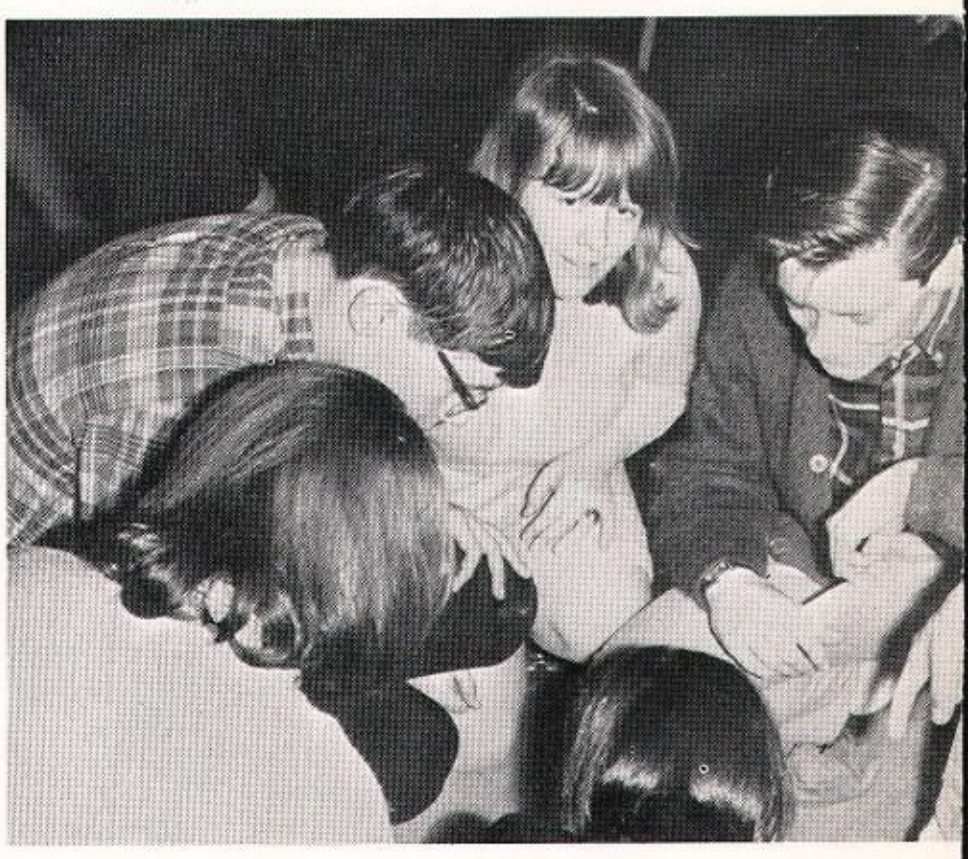
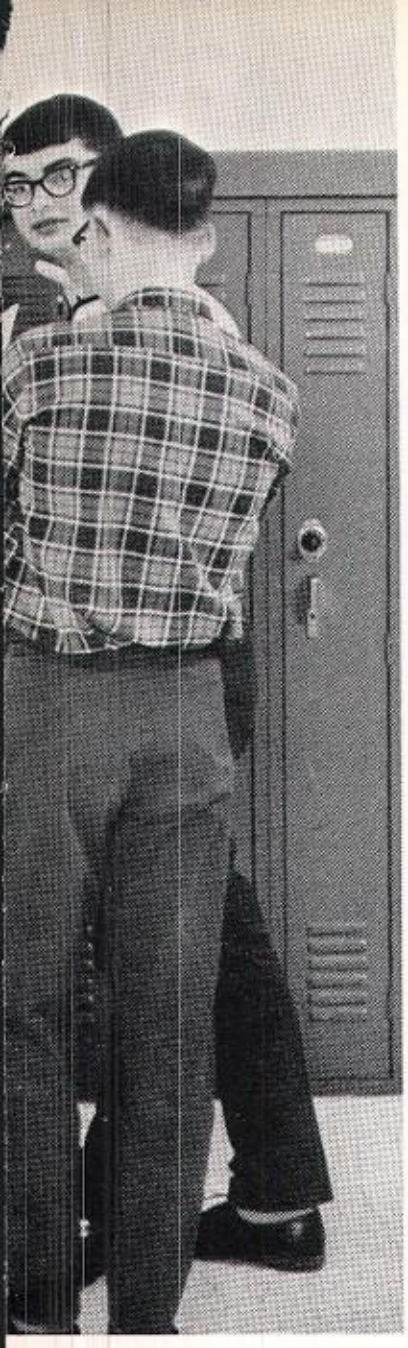
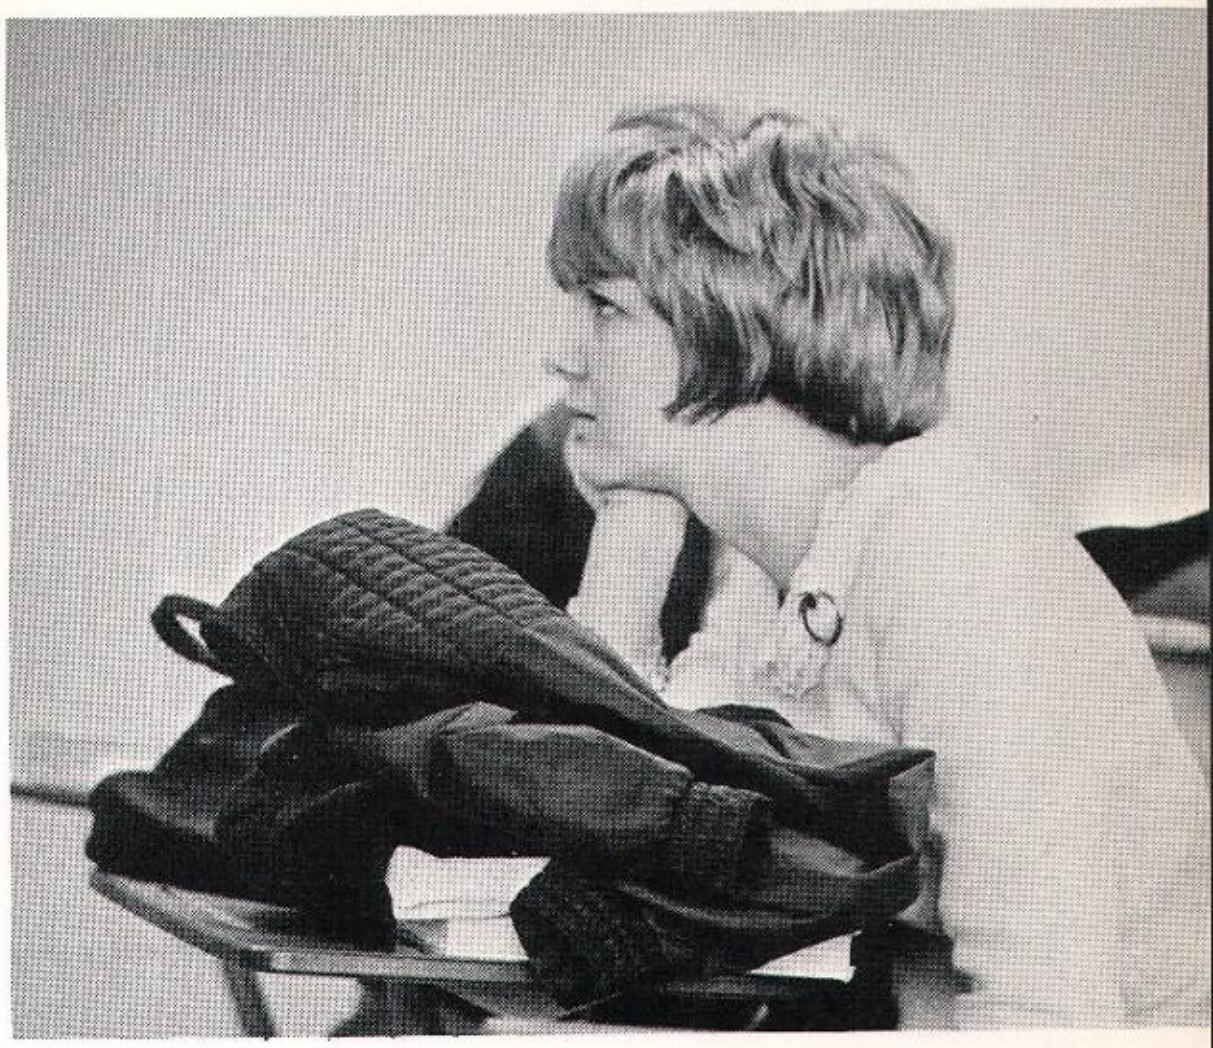
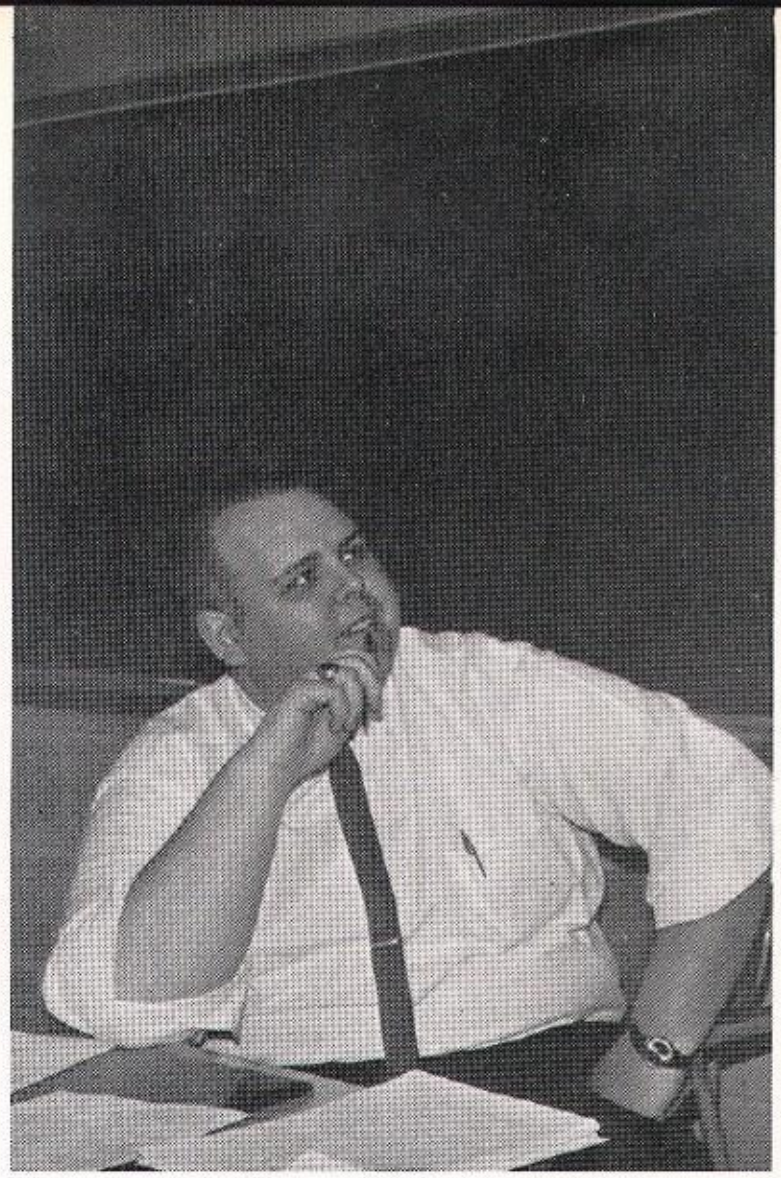
Happiness is a many- sided entity. It can be merely a small feeling of contentment as you finish an assignment well done, or it can be the most joyous feeling you have when you discover you will be given the chance to do what you want in life. Security is another abstraction that is relative to each individual's way of thinking. It is the feeling of relief you have when you remember your locker combination after your locker becomes unjammed, or it's knowing there's a teacher nearby to help as soon as you ask. Port Jervis Senior High School can also be defined in many ways. It's teenagers and teachers . . . textbooks and test tubes . . . maturation and motivation . . . sports and activities . . . 65's and 95's . . . comprehending and studying. But Port Jervis Senior High School is also something else. Charlie Brown and his friends found that it is happiness and security.









WILLARD E. LLOYD

Dedication

Congeniality . . . a warm smile and a firm handshake . . . Sincerity . . . a heartfelt desire to teach and guide . . . Ability . . . to draw forth respect and obedience . . . Friendship . . . congeniality, sincerity, ability, and something more given of the inner self.

An image . . . a character portrait. The picture . . . Mr. Lloyd. It is an individual's painting and therefore expresses an individual's feeling. Each of us, according to our single relationship with Mr. Lloyd has our own particular painting with different scenes and different colors, but friendship stands foremost and is of the warmest here.

It is to the friend that we make this dedication of Archives 1966.

PORT JERVIS HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL
JULIUS SYLVIA

A person at the head of the school who sets the policies and tones which we are to follow. This is the principal. To an extent, his philosophies are reflected through the teachers to the student. This makes him perhaps the most influential individual in our school.

The Vice-Principal, the disciplinarian, has probably one of the most difficult jobs. But then again, "Happiness is smiling from behind your desk as you give detention."

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL
RUSSELL FAIELLO

The Board of Education is the policy making body of our school. It also budgets the system's finances and makes sure that state requirements are met. Mainly they are concerned with maintaining the highest standard of education for the Port Jervis School System.

As head of this system, the Superintendent of Schools has responsibilities which directly effect the students and faculty. All decisions of the Board of Education are enforced by him. It is through this elected body that we obtain the daily pattern of administration by which we are governed.

Superintendent of Schools
DR. ARTHUR J. VENEZIA

Faculty

"Crack!" "He's at it again with that meter stick!" "Pauvre bebe" "accuracy of recall!!" "I must monitor feeding time at the zoo!"

So it is in the day of a P.J. student. Daily we must cope with these idiosyncrasies of our beloved faculty members. Being human, they also have their off-days and these, too, we must grin and bear.

Then, we hear, "I think people of your age are deprived of the responsibility you're capable of handling," or "that's the stuff, keep plugging!" These are the words we'll keep longest in our mind.

We can use the traditional pet names behind their backs and occasionally show indignity at having to follow certain "requests" or do that stupid homework assignment. Still, we'll see the gain eventually, and when we get all flustered because we "can't do it", we'll hear that persistant "tempus fugit!" and we'll remember it with a new perspective.

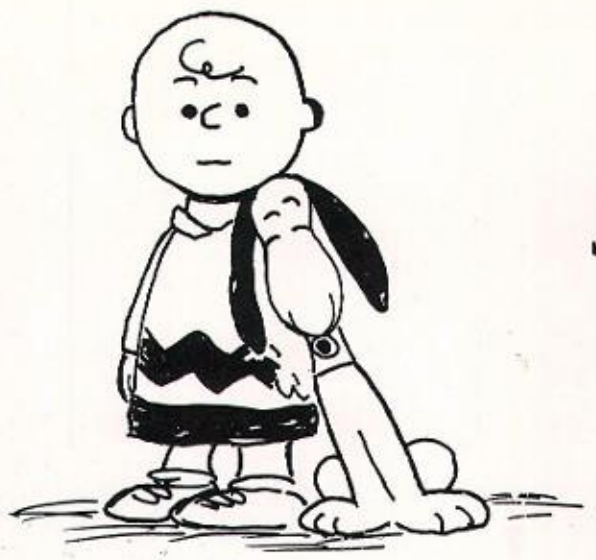
Miss Kammerer, office secretary, works busily at the attendance record. She and Mrs. Whelan are, to an extent, the leaning post of the administrative department. Also, teachers and students often rely on them for various information or for mimeograph work.



Security

Mrs. Whelan helps a student in the main office.

Student Council

"The meeting will come to order. Will the secretary please read the minutes?"

"The past year the following activities were attempted and accomplished: a Christmas tree to brighten the halls—slow to start, but nice when finished, several successful dances, we crowned a queen, checked coats at games, held a sock hop or two, the talent show, and of course, don't forget the spaghetti supper. Then in the spring we had . . . "

"Thank you. Now the treasurer's report."

"We lost no money."

"Very good. Is there any new business?"

"To wish the '66-'67 Council the best of luck."

"Is there a second? All in favor—unanimous! If there is no further business we will adjourn."

Donna Keane, Joe Hartmann, and John Leek keep the spaghetti rolling.

President Gail Pantley serves coffee to Mr. Sylvia and Mr. Shaw.

"I don't like that caption!" Once again Mr. Meany tells Mary Daly why the caption is being censored.

Archives '66 is fun and wild times, chaos in the conference room and scratched negatives.
Meany and McIlnay and Charlie Brown and the gang.
Mixed up deadlines and Saturdays at school.
A red bug and having "to accept the financial responsibility".
Directories, boosters, and full page ads.
Hawthorne, Horton, and a day in Norwalk.
Schedules, portraits, Apeda Studio, and Nell Greene.
Working, writing, cropping, and typing.
Funny captions and sixty-six layout sheets.
Mary, Carol, Edson and every senior in school.
Laughing, thinking and remembering a lot.
Mickel, Chase, Ron and Dave, thin negatives and a Rolleicord.
A red and gold cover and 132 pages.
Archives '66 is for tomorrow and remembering.

A rare sight — Ken Aber, Dave Kerr, Mary Daly, Mr. Meany, and Chana Kagan actually getting a layout completed more than 24 hours before the deadline.

Lee Hammond, Carol Norris, and Ron Austin accomplish nothing at still another yearbook meeting by burrowing through old yearbooks and completed art work.

Chaos reigns in the conference room as Edson Whitney, Mary Daly, Mr. Meany, Carol Norris, and Ken Aber try to find that lost photo an hour before the deadline.

Raider

"70 space margin double spaced" . . . "articles due on Friday" . . . "Raider articles for the month of" . . . These are all familiar lines to the students working on the newspaper staff of the Raider as they pass the student bulletin board.

For the third year now the Raider has been published with the Union Gazette each month. Its function is to inform the people of Port Jervis what the students of the high school are doing, and also to give these interested students an opportunity to participate in the field of journalism.

The success of this year's Raider, as in the past, was due to the work of the staff in preparing their articles. The issues presented topics ranging from Student Council news, fashion, and new teachers to trips taken by the students, and the recording of athletic events.

Liz Ruderman gets caught laying out the newspaper almost after the deadline.

The arrival of the Raider to the classroom motivates intense study.

Reporter Barbara Hoffman interviews Mr. McCafferty for the newspaper.

Honor Society

The Honor Society whose ideals are character, leadership, service, and scholarship inducted new member, Sharon Dwyer.

Squares, oddballs, misfits does that accurately describe our Honor Society members? Certainly not! The select members of the Neversink Chapter of the National Honor Society are among the leaders of our school. The purpose of this organization is to foster its ideals—those of scholarship, character, leadership, and service—among the student of Port Jervis Senior High School. The society hopes to help realize its goal by sponsoring trips for honor roll students and giving scholarship insignias to students who have been outstanding in certain subjects. By providing a cultural environment and by setting elevated academic standards, the National Honor Society tries to instill its principles in the student body of our school, producing as an end result, people worthy of honor.

Political Science Club

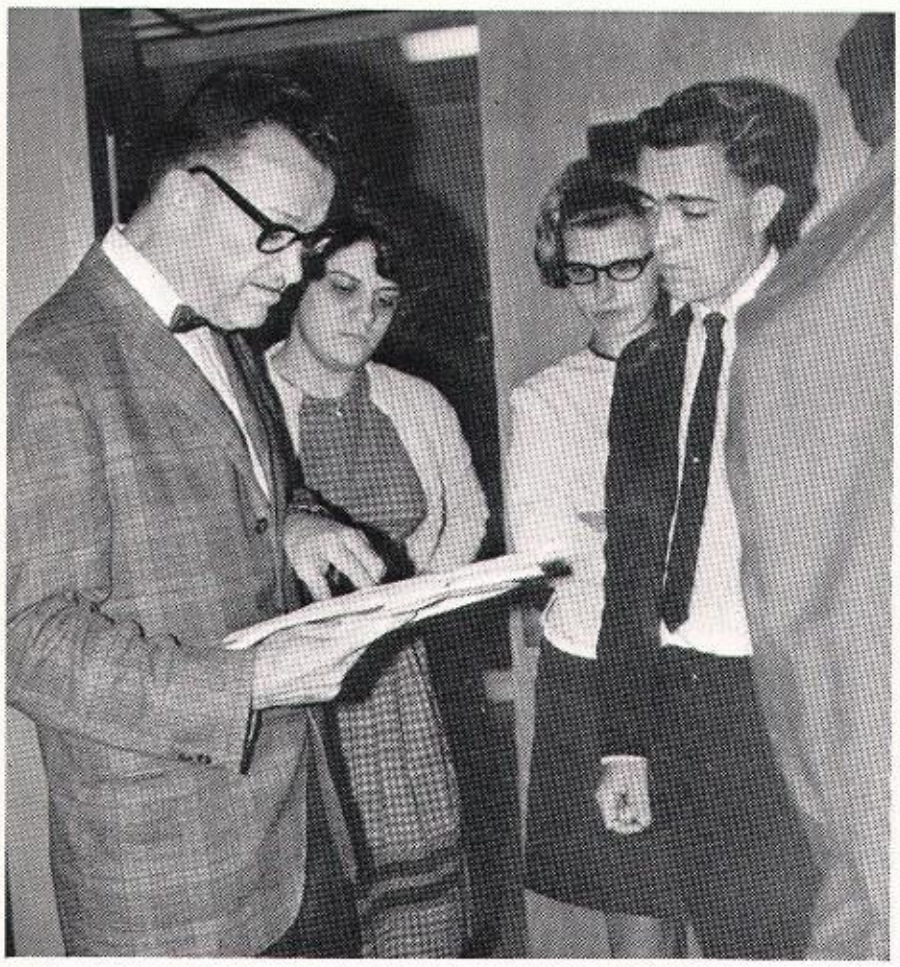
Politicians of the world attention! Port Jervis High School now presents your colleagues of the future.

Our Political Science Club may not produce any presidents, but it does provide a chance for its senior members to practice the principles they are taught in the new social studies course, political science. At the same time, it affords the underclassmen of the club a chance to acquire a background in political science. Under the leadership of Mr. Farace, who aside from being a faculty member is a local alderman, the students discuss the present political situations and the reasons behind them. The club's main activity this year has been taking field trips to observe the actual workings of government.

Science Club



Mr. Howard looks over the results of the extra-sensory perception experiment with Liz Giovanniello, Beth Dudko, and Dave Hitt.

Conversing with dolphins, transplanting the human heart, investigating new fields of computer science, exploring the universe—any or all of these might someday be the personal task of the members of the 1965-66 Science Club. What are they doing to prepare themselves for their future challenge? The Science Club meets regularly to discuss specific problems or advances in any one of the many diverse fields of science. Individual members deliver lectures on topics of their choice. In this way, members are exposed to interesting subjects not touched on in formal schools. Outside speakers are invited to give talks on such interesting topics as photography and electronics. The club is introduced to the new world of space exploration through various movies. It also engages in experiments on interesting subjects such as E.S.P. All of these activities combine to make the student better prepared to understand the world of science around him.

Sportsmen's Conservation Club

What's a hunter? He tramps through the woods all day, flushes birds from the bush and runs his hounds. He carries guns or bow and arrows or if you please—a nylon line with a big hook at the end.

What's a thoughtless hunter—he's a killer. He kills at any time of the year and any animate object. He takes away, bit by bit, our natural heritage of wild life and forest beauty.

What's a sportsman conservationist? He has a feeling for his sport other than bloodthirst. He knows there's a time when hunting a species is for the welfare of its entire population. While he's eliminating over-abundance, the sportsman conservationist restocks to prevent extinction.

Through the Sportsmen's Conservation Club, Mr. Chase has been trying to impress the ideals of sportsmanship and conservation and the rules of good hunting upon its members.

The members stock fish in various streams in the area, take field trips, and learn the proper care and use of fire arms. It is hopeful that with such programs as these in our schools we will have a longer lasting forest reserve.

Future Nurses Club

Dear Miss Nightingale:

You know, I think some of us might really make it all the way. Honest, the interest is there. We get together and talk about how it's going to be working in the hospitals with all the doctors and technicians and all the satisfaction we'll get from seeing someone well again. We've even started learning and practicing on each other. Well, maybe it's not like walking among the wounded in the Crimean War. Still, we think sticking people with needles and giving baths in a safe, sound, and sanitary hospital will be dramatic enough for us.

So any way, thanks a lot for getting the whole thing on the road. Do you think we'll ever really make it?

Sincerely,
Future Nurses of PJHS

Industrial Arts Club

Surf boards, electronic kits, water skis . . . what teenager wouldn't like any one of these? Well, some Port teens decided to make their own. They joined the Industrial Arts Club and are now enjoying the finished product.

The Industrial Arts Club was organized so that P.J. students might become more familiar with the arts of printing, wood-making, metal-working, leather craft, and electricity outside of the classroom. Members also get a chance to apply their new learned techniques and create products which they can enjoy long after they've left high school.

At meetings members are able to discuss the correlation between their work in the shop and the work done in some of the many large manufacturing plants in the United States. They also see industry in action by visiting factories in the Tri-States area.

The Industrials Arts Club fosters the growth of individual creativity. Bill Eagan puts his talents to work with a jigsaw.

Room 29 has the atmosphere of a busy office 6th and 7th periods. Jean Heater and Jackie Willard discuss some of the work one of the teachers has asked them to do.

Mr. Faiello's gang and Mrs. G. Gilling's girls work hard everyday to make sure the clerical workers of tomorrow are efficient and well trained.

The 6th and 7th period office practice classes under the able supervision of Mr. Faiello form the Office Practice Club. Through the years, it has been one of the most active and enriching clubs at Port Jervis High School. The two classes communicate by a system of blackboard notes. In this way they can plan bake sales, car washes, and other money raising projects. Over the Easter Vacation, the club took its annual trip. This year they went on a two day excursion to Gettysburg and the Pennsylvania Dutch Country. Later in the spring the club enjoyed their traditional picnic at High Point Park.

The Shorthand Club is one of the newer clubs in the school. Under the guidance of Mrs. Gillings this group of ambitious girls has worked to make the Shorthand Club an active organization and rewarding experience. During their monthly meetings the girls plan money raising activities for an anxiously awaited and thoroughly enjoyed club trip. The girls in the Shorthand Club have aided other school activities whenever called upon to help.

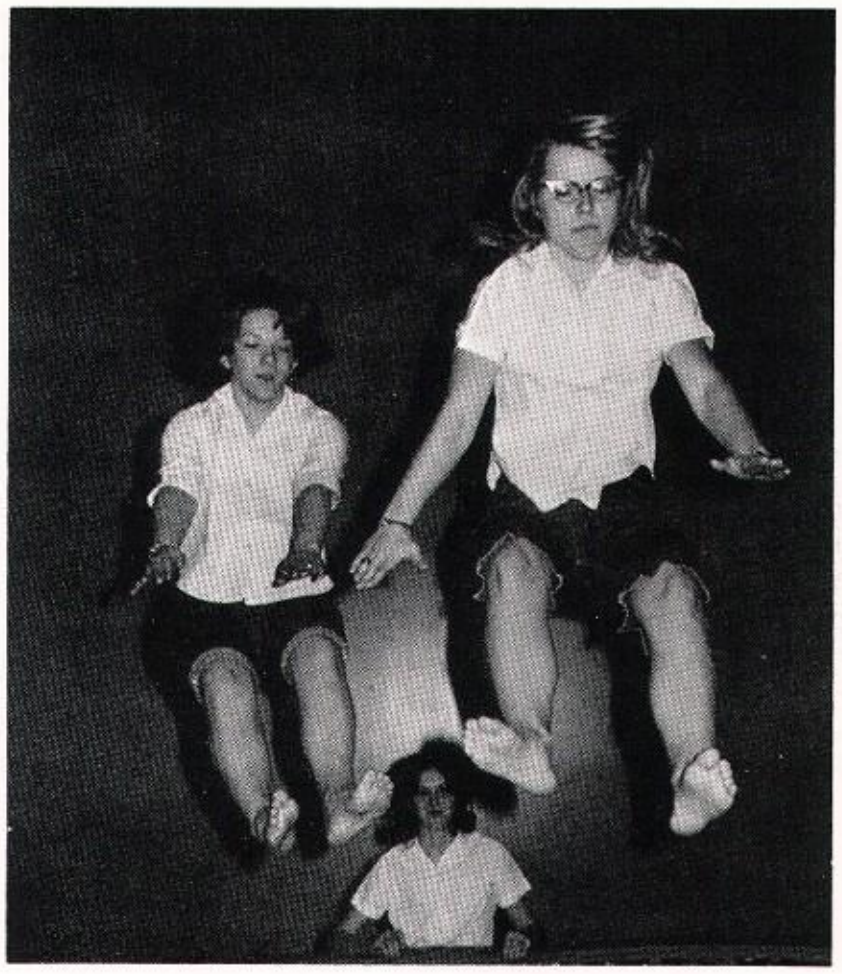
What's the greatest hazard to the opposite sex? Why girls with a little more muscle, and the members of the Girls' Athletic Association are on the road to physical fitness with a diversified program of sports activities. Club members play volleyball, tennis, basketball, and even bounce around on the trampoline under the guidance of Miss Sells, the club advisor. The G.A.A. girls tackle all sports with great vivaciousnes and enthusiasm. This organization gives all a chance to develop a healthy mind and body though not everyone can excel in a sport.



Nancy Buckley and Linda Secker go bouncing on the trampoline as Sharon Hoffman stands nearby as a safety guard.

Varsity Club

What does our Varsity Club do for us? Just think how dry and thick our mouths would be if we couldn't buy soda at the games. The Varsity Club quenches our thirst. How would it be not to have a program so we could tell who made the touchdown? Well, the Varsity Club supplies them for us, too.

The more important function is for the benefit of the boys themselves, or rather, one boy. The money the club receives from the sale of refreshments and programs is used to supply a Port athlete with a scholarship. The Varsity Club also awards a trophy to its most outstanding member.

Girls' Glee Club

Mixed Chorus

"The halls are alive with the sound of music," because of the efforts of the Girls Glee Club and the Mixed Chorus. Through these organizations under the guidance of Mr. Lester, the entire school body is presented with lovely harmonious concerts at various times during the school year. This year the two vocal groups put on their two annual winter and spring concerts and sang many beautiful ballads which are often associated with these two seasons.

Toot Toot, squeal, crash, boom—and the P. J. High students run for cover.

Don't be alarmed. It's just the band tuning up. Once the band begins a song, the students find the sounds coming from the auditorium very melodious and they leave the bomb shelters willingly and even eagerly. The Port Jervis High School band is composed of an accomplished group of musicians, who represent an active and vital part of our school. The band members are outside on cold autumn mornings working on half-time shows that are performed at P. J. High's varsity football games. They practice diligently year-round for concerts to enrich the cultural atmosphere of the community. When waiting for an assembly to begin, the Port Jervis High School students are afforded a chance to enjoy the labors of the band. The band contributed to the community's pleasure by marching in several of the city parades.

A great deal of the band's vitality, and achievements can be attributed to their energetic and able director, Mr. Harold Neubert. Here he is helping Jim Goulette.

"Mirror, mirror on the wall who's the fairest of them all?" This year our magic mirror, the PJHS student body, voted Nancy Dutton the fairest of Port Jervis High. Nancy was crowned and kissed by Port's new principal at the Thanksgiving Game rally. Though Port lost the game, Nancy Dutton won over the crowd with her radiant smile as she reigned on Thanksgiving Day.

"Four forward butterflies in left . . . pass . . . thumb twirl behind back, three backward butterflies in right . . . pass under left leg, three lunges, windmills . . . salute!"

"Whoops, my baton's caught in my skirt."

"Right, Right! That trombone player better stop sliding his slide into my backside."

"I know it's the big game, but my fingers are frozen to the baton. I can't twirl!"

"Yes, Mr. Neubert, we'll use some throws at the next game."

"Practice tonight—I don't care if you have a date, a yearbook meeting, or detention—be here!"

"Let's go over this ONCE more, girls!"

Cheerleaders

"We've got the coach; we've got the team; we've got the pep; we've got the steam"—and we also have a great squad of cheerleaders to lead this and other cheers at our football and basketball games.

Being a cheerleader is stirring the crowd to cheer, letting the team know you're behind them, realizing that you left your tights home on the bed. It's having a girl throw her back out during an away game and having it strapped up with a cafeteria tray!

At basketball games it's fun when only half the squad runs on the court, then gets stuck out there when the game starts again. Sometimes a cheerleader even gets the opportunity to kick one of the players after finishing a cartwheel. Another part of being a cheerleader is trying to make good excuses to get out of those semi-weekly practices.

"Remember!" "Give them the axe!" Losing the Thanksgiving Game was in no part due to lack of enthusiasm from the cheerleaders.

To water the wine or not is the question between Gloriana (Gail Pantley), Count Mountjoy (David Hitt), Mr. Benter (Edson Whitney), and lady-in-waiting (Linda Rolff).

The Mouse That Roared

Professor Kokintz (Terry Von Ignatius) is disgusted when his private line to the President gets no answer.

There was much more to the senior play than this. There was learning lines, rehearsing and more rehearsing, a cast party, a pizza party, wearing costumes and make-up, building sets and tearing them down. There was work and there was fun. But best of all, there will be memories.

Secretary of State (David Kerr), President (John Werner), General Snippett (Al Baldwin), discuss with Professor Kokintz (Terry Von Ignatius) his discovery of the Q-bomb.

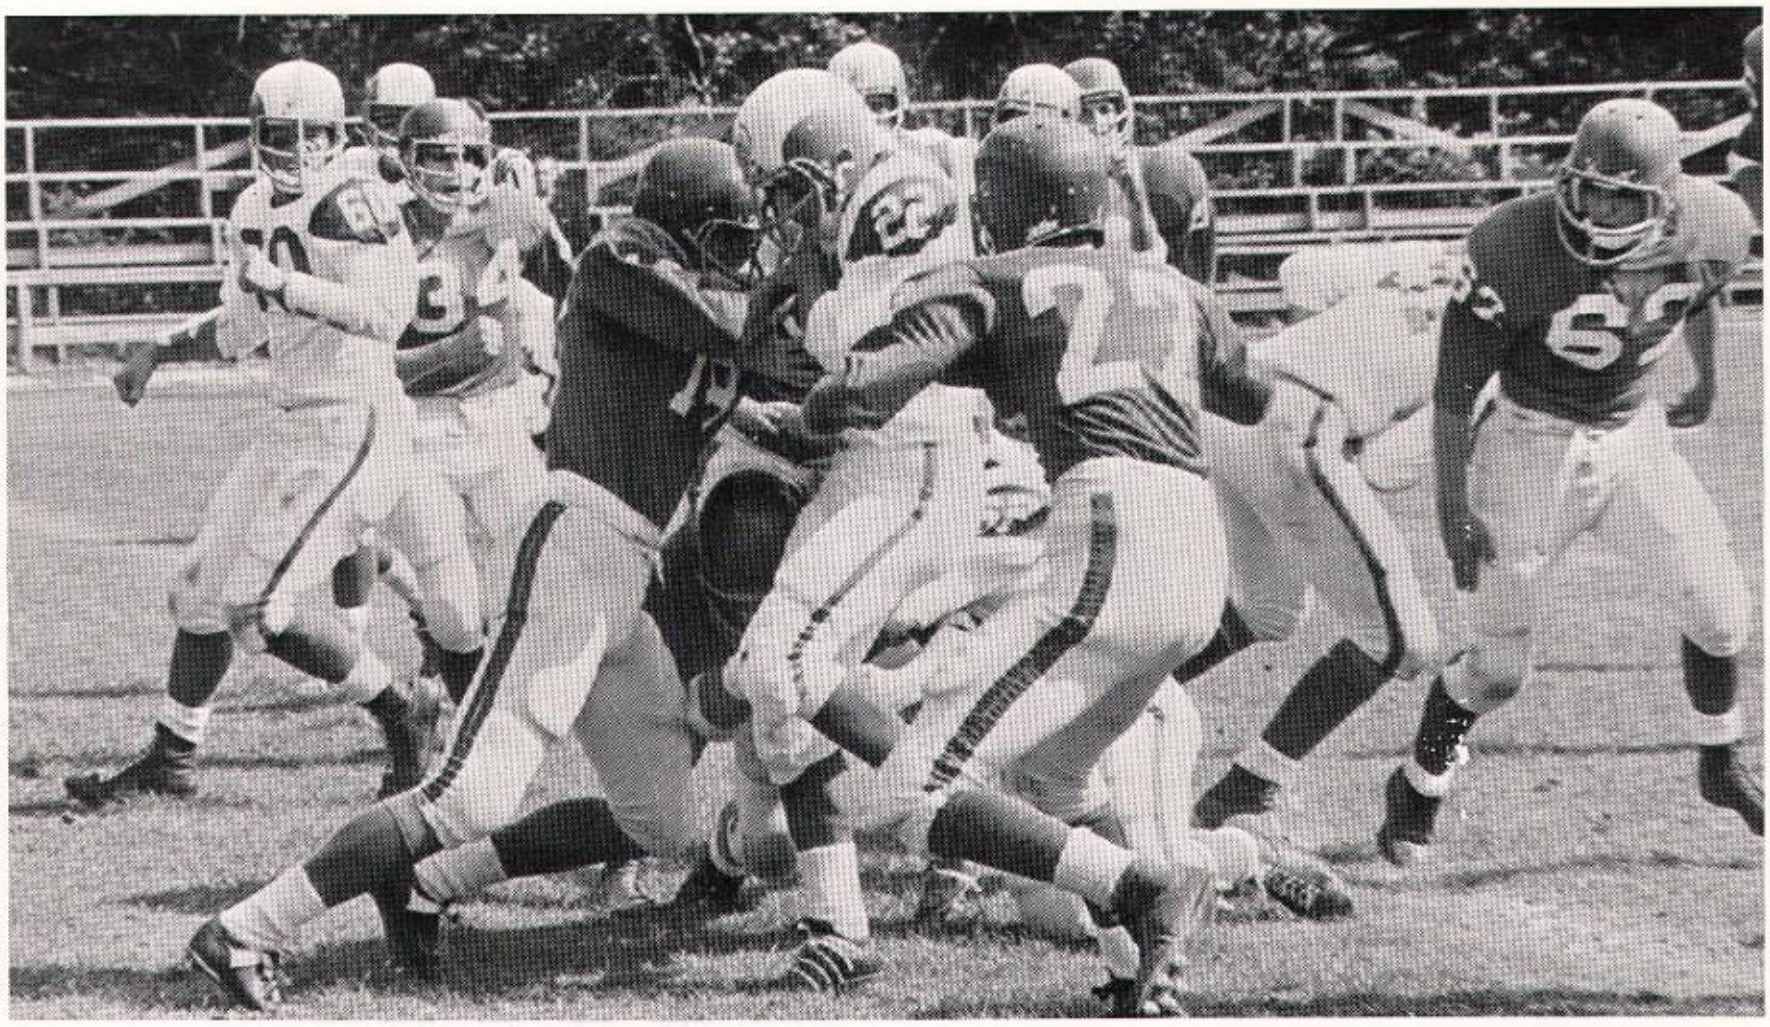
Varsity Football



Goshen linemen try unsuccessfully to stop Port's Junior flankerback, Tom Geib, as he starts a successful Port day against Goshen by scoring the Raider's first T.D. The Raiders went on to win 40 to 6.

With only a fraction of the starting lineup returning, Head Coach Joe Viglione was faced with the extremely difficult task of preparing the inexperienced players to meet the rigorous standards that the DUSO League demands. Coach Viglione was assisted by line coach Al Wilgard and Pat Mazza, who has just joined the Red Raider Football coaching staff. Co-captains Tom Connelly and John Bell aided the coaches by building up a strong desire to win among the team.

The starters this year were Warren Gardner at center, Dave Simmons and Tom Connelly as Tackles, Bill Van Sickle and Mark Faller as Guards, the Ends were John Adams and Bill Wharton. The backfield consisted of Elbert Wilkerson, the Fullback; John Bell and Tom Gieb, Halfbacks; and Bob DeVore or Bill Gastmeyer as Quarterback.

Port started the season off with three hard-fought victories over Nyack 25-7, Goshen 40-6 and Saugerties 37-6.

After the three non-league games the Port Jervis eleven played host to Kingston in their first DUSO-League clash. The game ended 19-0 with Port on top. The play was highlighted by the accomplishments of John Bell who scored twice on a 42 yard run and on a touchdown pass from Bill Gastmeyer. Tom Gieb also tallied for Port.

The following game found Port Jervis in Poughkeepsie. The Raiders trounced the Pioneers 45-7 in a DUSO-League contest. John Bell again led all scorers with 3 big touchdowns. This game also placed Newburgh and Port Jervis in a tie for First Place Honors.

The Newburgh game was very important to the seniors on the PJ squad, this was their last game with the Goldbacks, and the outcome of the game also determined the sole possessor of the DUSO-League lead. The Red Raiders scored two quick touchdowns in the first half to take a 13-point lead into the locker room. The Raiders also were dealt with a hazardous blow. Dave Simmons, a star lineman, was injured in the first half and was out for the remainder of the game. The Newburgh team scored twice in the last half to tighten the contest at 13-12, but a weary, yet determined line headed by Bill Van Sickle and Tom Connelly stopped a Newburgh threat with only seconds till the end of the game. The defensive line held the Goldbacks on four occasions inside the PJ 10 yard line.

The loss of Dave Simmons and then end Bill Wharton in the opening minutes of the Thanksgiving Day game was an obvious disadvantage to the team against the Middies. The Raiders, still weary from the Newburgh goal-line stands, were dominated by the Middies in a game which concluded with a score of 26-6. Elbert Wilkerson scored the lone points for Port Jervis. Tom Connelly was awarded the Ralph Frederick Memorial award for the most outstanding performance. Tom came up with 3 big fumbles and numerous key tackles during the game.

Port placed 6 players on the All-DUSO list. Tackle Tom Connelly, Guard Mark Faller and Fullback Elbert Wilkerson made the Offensive team, while Dave Simmons, Bob DeVore and Bill Wharton were selected on the Defensive squad.

Warren Gardner, Bill Van Sickle, Pete Kowal, and Little John Bell were picked for the honorable mention list.

This year saw the appearance of many new faces in the Port Jervis Football World. There was Bill Gastmeyer, a sophomore quarterback who proved himself so able that Mr. Viglione started him in many of the games. Also there was Mark Faller, another sophomore, who gained a berth on the famed Port Jervis line. Mark showed much desire and excelled over the rest of the players to be picked unanimously on the ALL- DUSO offensive team.

Under the coaching of Pat Mazza, as backfield coach, and Ron Moyer, as line coach, the Port Jervis Junior Varsity enjoyed a fairly successful season.

The J. V.'s season record stood at two wins and three defeats, with two of them coming at the hands of Middletown.

The J.V.'s began their season with a winning slate. Their first game was played at Kingston. The game began with Kingston receiving the ball, and marching fifty yards for a touchdown. After that, both teams settled down and there was no further scoring for the rest of the first half. In the second half the Raiders came back strong. They scored one touchdown in the third quarter and one in the fourth quarter to come from behind and win the game, by a score of 13 to 7.

In their second game the J. V.'s faced the tough Middies. The Middies scored first, as they recovered a Port fumble, and marched forty yards for a touchdown. The J. V.'s came right back, after taking the kickoff, and marched seventy yards for a touchdown to tie up the game. After that touchdown, Middletown controlled the scoreboard for the rest of the game as they scored three more touchdowns to defeat the Raiders 25 to 6.

In their third game, the Raiders faced Poughkeepsie. The Raiders took the opening kickoff and ran it back eighty-five yards for a touchdown. There was no scoring until late in the second period when Poughkeepsie scored on a forty yard pass play to tie up the game. In the second half neither team scored until late in the fourth quarter when the Raiders scored on an eighty yard pass play which won the game by a score of 13 to 6.

The Raiders faced Middletown in their fourth game. This game was mainly a defensive battle as Middletown scored the only touchdown and won by a score of 7 to 0.

The Raiders ended their season by going to Newburgh to play the "Goldbacks." The game began with the Goldbacks taking the kickoff and going down the field sixty yards for a touchdown. The Raiders then received the ball and tied up the game as they marched down the field and scored. After the Raiders scored, Newburgh ran away with the game as they scored three more touchdowns to defeat the J. V.'s by a score of 26 to 7.

The Red Raider Basketball Squad of Port Jervis has not had what could be called a successful season. The Raiders, although losing all fourteen games, showed a lot of determination and fighting spirit in every contest.

The month of February brought four checks in the Raider loss column, but the P.J. roster was bolstered by the presence of two young sophomores, Vince Hauber and Joe Wilson who were brought up from the J. V. squad. Hauber hit 56 points in four game as a varsity player for a fourteen point average per game, tops for a P.J. player.

The Raiders started off the month against Newburgh, a team that had drubbed them in their first meeting. P. J. played a fairly good ball game, but was overwhelmed by Newburgh's height advantage and came out on the losing end by a score of 81-40. Vince Hauber in his first varsity game led the Raiders with 11 points with Bill Wharton and Joe Wilson hitting 10.

Next the Raiders traveled to Middletown. The Raiders, starting to jell, kept with the Middies all through the first half but fell apart after the intermission and came out on the losing end by a score of 66-49. Vince Hauber led the P.J. scoring with fourteen, showing that his performance against Newburgh wasn't "beginners luck" and that he had come to play. Steve Sarfatti and Al Seigel also had good nights hitting thirteen and eleven points respectively.

The Middletown game ended an away stint of four straight weeks and Coach Hamor felt his team was ready to break the twelve game losing streak at the expense of the Indians of Liberty. The Indians had other ideas, however, and walked away with a 79-47 victory. The sophomore sensation Vince Hauber led P.J. scorers and tied for the game's high honors with sixteen points. Steve Sarfatti, who has been the most consistent P.J. scorer all season had 13 points.

This set the stage for Port's best effort of the season against the Fallsburgh Comets. P.J. trailed by only three points at half time and came out to take a 37-36 lead midway through the third quarter, but Fallsburgh was able to score four quick baskets and subsequently put the game out of reach of the Raiders. Fallsburgh went on to win by a score of 70-52. This by far was the best effort of the Porters this season, who were in the game until the fourth quarter. Vince Hauber for the fourth time in four starts led the Raider scoring with fifteen points and Joe Wilson scored a total of 13 points.

Although Coach Hamor has had many setbacks this year and has had little success he is looking forward to the future. Next season he will have returning from this year's squad juniors Onofry and Dick Westbrook along with sophomores Vince Hauber and Joe Wilson. Looking forward to next season, the Raiders should have a lot of potential and should go a long way in the DUSO League.

The Port Jervis Junior Varsity Basketball Team under Coach Hugh Spangenberg, although turning in a disappointing record of 2-14 on the season, showed a great deal of aggressiveness and spirit. In every contest home or away the team demonstrated much of their never-say-die spirit.

The Junior Varsity started out on the right foot by beating the Delaware Valley Warriors in their opening game, but from then on had much hard luck and disappointment. Their other victory turned out to be the best played game of the season and one of the most exciting. The Jayvees pulled a surprise upset over the highly touted Monticello Panthers by a score of 60-57 in a game whose fate was decided in overtime.

Although they lost the services of Vince Hauber and Joe Wilson, who were brought up to the Varsity, Coach Spangenberg kept his boys fighting in every ball game. The team, usually at a height disadvantage to the other schools, always gave their all in every game.

With a new group of sophomores coming up to the school next year, Coach Spangenberg is eagerly looking to the future for a more successful season. It it surely hoped by fans as well as the coach that the experience gained this year by the team will aid them to a better season in '66-'67.

Missing — Steve Drapala (129 pounds), Dave Simmons (HWT).

The 1965-66 Wrestling schedule, although not as victorious as the previous years, had many fine moments. The season's record of four wins and five losses was only a fair showing of the team's capabilities. The most rewarding aspect of the season was the team's effort in the D.U.S.O. and Section 9 tournaments. They placed second in the D.U.S.O. tournament and third in the Section 9 tournament.

The team started out the year in a winning style by easily defeating Spring Valley and Haverstraw in the preseason scrimmages. Then, after only three weeks of practice, the Raiders defeated Kingston 34-18 at Kingston.

The Raiders traveled to Suffern for their next meet where Suffern handed Port a 37-11 defeat. Port then played host to Liberty at a night meet. Liberty brought a much improved team and Port suffered its worst defeat. Liberty won all but three weight classes by a score of 35-8.

Port bounced back on the winning side as they defeated Newburgh 29-11 at a match held at Newburgh. Port continued on the road and next met Middletown. Port Jervis ended up on the low side of a 36-16 score.

At the mid-season mark, the Raiders had compiled a 2-3 record in overall competition and a 2-2 record in the D.U.S.O. action.

Starting off the second half of the season, Port Jervis went to Liberty. Liberty exercised the same control as before by defeating Port 31-9. By this time, Liberty had first place in the D.U.S,O. League.

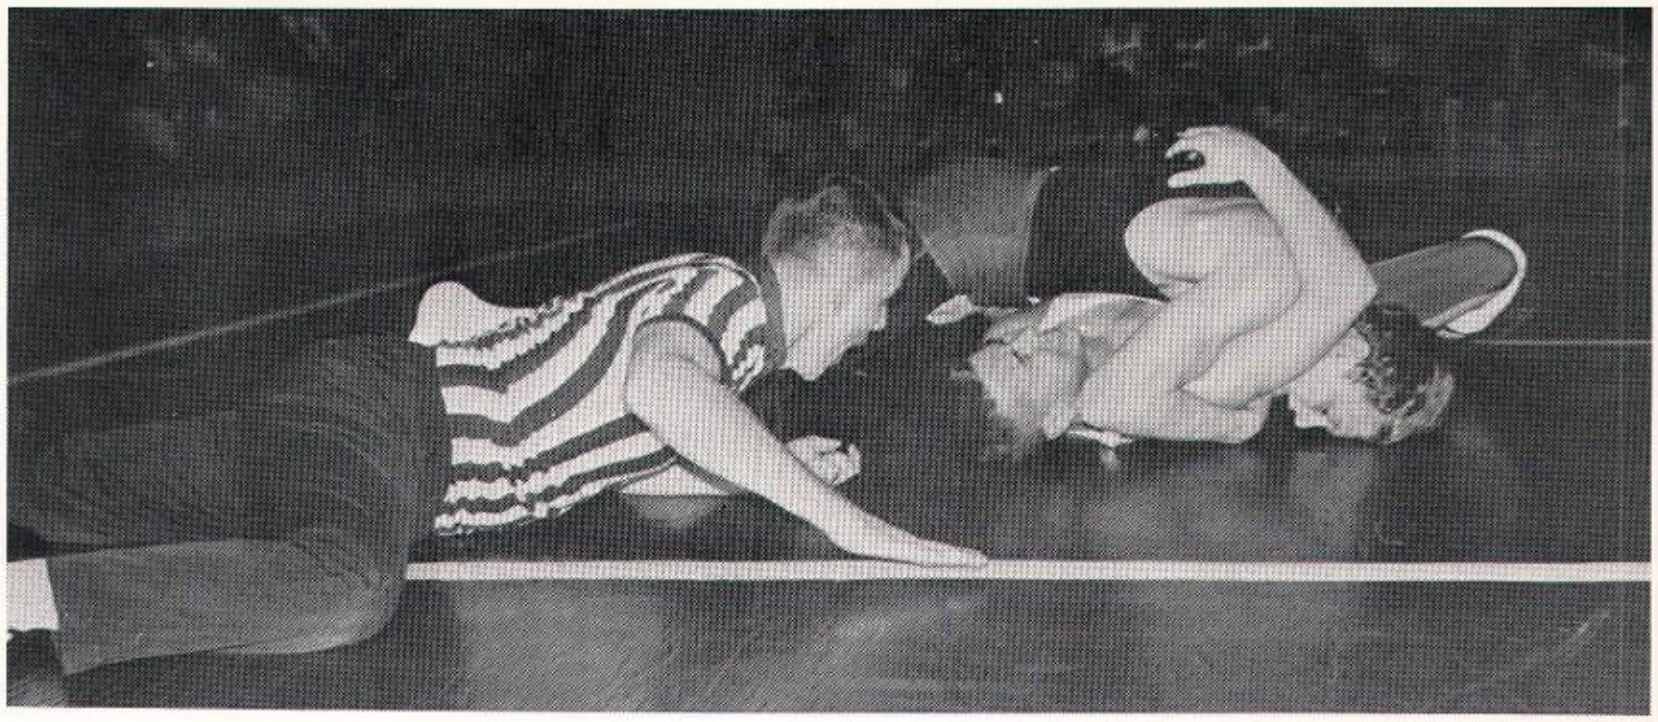
The Raiders put on a final surge by winning two of the last three dual meets held in Port. Port easily defeated Kingston 43-3. This seemed to spark the team on to defeat their next opponent, Newburgh with a score of 28-16.

Coming down to the last dual meet Port had improved tremendously. The match was the most exciting in Port's wrestling history. The lead switched back and forth through ten matches and evened out at the eleventh. The heavy weight match decided the victory for Middletown. This was the biggest let down the team faced.

However, the Middletown loss didn't dampen the team spirit, for at the Orange County Community College tournament Eric Keyes and Bob Devore went all the way to the finals where they both lost to Lindenhurst wrestlers. Steve Drapala defeated Ptak of Middletown for a third place.

The Raiders then traveled to Liberty for the D.U.S.O. tournament. Although Port was considered out of contention, the team came through with the best showing. Port took four first places, three seconds and one third. Steve Keyes, Eric Keyes, Steve Drapala, and Bob Devore won all their matches and took first place prizes. For defeating Ptak, Steve Drapala won the Most Outstanding Wrestler Award. Steve was undefeated in dual meets and the D.U.S.O. tournament. As a whole, the team was only seven points behind Liberty.

After the D.U.S.O. tournament, Port went to the Section 9 meet and took a third place. This is the best any Port Jervis team has done at this tournament. Mark Faller came through with a first place for Port. Steve Drapala and Eric Keyes continued their fine wrestling and placed second and third respectively. Nick Fedorka, a freshman, put in a surprising third place finish. Mark Faller, a sophomore, went to the State Intersectional and earned a fourth place.



Hank Dunn is about to register a pin against Kingston. Hank wrestled in the 168 lb. class.

Coach Mazza gives some last minute instructions to grappler Mark Faller as Coach Wilgard looks on.

This year Port Jervis added Junior Varsity Wrestling to its extra-curricular activities. The success of our Varsity team in the previous years has created so much enthusiasm as to warrant the beginning of a Junior Varsity etam. The Jayvee team was coached this year by Mr. Pat Mazza, a science teacher in the junior high. The team had a very successful first year as they boasted a 4-3 win-loss record. Considering that many of the opposing teams were more experienced and our wrestlers were freshmen and sophomores, a 4-3 record is very impressive.

The first Jayvee match put Port up against the strong and experienced Liberty "B" team. Port gave them the roughest match of the year, but came out behind a 29-19 score. Winning for Port were: Kip Hawkins, 103 lb. class; Dennis Bayer, 112 lb. class; Pete Stellato, 129 lb. class; Marvin Siegel, 133 lb. class; and Mike Gould in the 140 lb. class.

The Raiders next met another well established team in Newburgh. Newburgh defeated Port by a score of 33-13. Kip Hawkins and Mike Gould continued to win. The team did very well seeing as they had only one match's experience compared to Newburgh's years of experience. On the second meeting of these two teams, Newburgh again won.

After two setbacks, Port was really "up" for their next meet against Burke Catholic. Port compiled 35 points to Burke's 3 as they won five out of the nine weight classes by pins. The next meeting of these same teams ended up almost exactly as the first. This time Port won by a score of 33-5. The Raiders managed to get six pins this time. Gary Pomes, Kip Hawkins, Ed Sarro, Marvin Siegel, Dennis Simmons, and John Olenick recorded pins for the team's best showing.

Our Junior Varsity Wrestlers also won two matches from the newly formed Delaware Valley Varsity Wrestlers. The first meet was completely controlled by Port Jervis. Delaware Valley only won one and tied one as they were handed a 44-7 setback. Port had a shutout up until the last two matches when Delaware Valley tied the 183 lb. class and pinned our heavyweight.

At the close of the team's first season, they had proven themselves a worthy team. Although it is the effort of the whole team, each boy is out on the mat by himself. This quickly displays his ability. Judging from the record of some of our jayvees, the varsity will be well supplied in the future. Mike Gould compiled an undefeated record on the jayvee team, and later was moved up to varsity for the Orange County Tournament. Kip Hawkins contributed a 6-1 record for the team in the 103 lb. class. Pete Stellato and Marvin Siegel each finished with a 5-1 record in the 129 and 133 lb. class respectively.

Cross Country

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Port Jervis has a reputation for outstanding runners. In the past few years our track teams have produced some exceptional runners like John Kinney and Jerry Carlton. John was the basis for many of the school's winning track teams until he graduated last year. Along with John went the backbone of our cross country. The job of rebuilding and developing the talent fell upon Mr. John Bernard.

The season started late for the Raiders as the coaching position wasn't filled until all the other teams had been practicing for two weeks. The turnout for cross country this year was about average for our size school. The team grew from seven to thirteen. Out of the thirten there were only five returning seniors. Since Jerry was the best runner on the team, he took over as the team leader.

The team practiced six days a week for at least two hours a day. They started practice with calisthentics, with plenty of sit-ups and leg lifts. After this warm-up, they would begin running. Depending upon the team's shape, the weather, and the coaches' humor, they would run anywhere from five to eleven miles per practice. The nights that the team only did five miles were when they ran sprints up Big and Little. When the team ran eleven miles, they ran around the Horn Road. Usually, the team rán seven miles on the track, plus penalty laps. Let it be known that Jack "Skip" Craft held the record for number of penalty laps run.

The highlight of the season came at a home meet. The day was overcast and the ground was soaked by earlier rains. These were not ideal conditions. They were, in fact, very poor conditions to overcome in running a good time. However, Jerry Carlton ran around our two and a quarter mile course in ten minutes and thirteen seconds. This is now the course record. It is four seconds faster than the old record set by John Kinney. This was a tremendous effort under those conditions.

Although we had the best runner in the league, there was quite a gap in the times before our second and third runners came in. The secret in cross country is having three or more good runners who can stay within ten seconds of each other. This year Port lacked this, but still managed to place fourth in D.U.S.O. League competition and fourth in the Section 9 Tournament.

Again our team will suffer with the graduating of the seniors. Boys like Jerry Carlton, Jack Craft, Gary Hames, and Eric Keyes will really be missed next year. Coach Bernard has a couple boys like Steve Keyes, Steve Martin, and Bob Reid coming back next year.

Indoor Track

Indoor track is a new sport in Port Jervis. This is only the third year we have participated. Although we have had success in previous years, this year was rather disappointing.

Indoor track is the opportunity for boys in the New York City area to participate in their specialty during the winter months. Runners who have above average ability go to these indoor meets to compete against the best runners around. It is different from outdoor track because it is run "on the boards". There is very definite strategy needed when running on an indoor track. There are only certain times when you should make your move, and if you don't make it at the right time, you lose time and distance.

Port Jervis was represented by Jerry Carlton, Jim Goulette, Bob Reid, and Tom DeMond at the various indoor meets. Jerry is a miler and a two miler. He concentrates more on the two mile run, however. Jim Goulette, Bob Reid, and Tom DeMond run in the short sprints.

The competition is very tough at these meets. In order to run in these meets, you even have to meet a qualifying time in your particular event. Therefore, it is quite an accomplishment even to attend a meet. It also is an honor for the school to have participants.

The coach, Mr. John Bernard, and the boys work hard, even in the worst weather. You can see the boys running around the school grounds in the dead of winter. All the boys from indoor track also run for cross country and outdoor track. Indoor track keeps them in shape all year round besides giving them an opportunity to earn distinction. The indoor track team participated in the following matches:

Westchester Relays, Cardinal Hayes, St. Francis Prep, N.Y.U.

Jim Goulette clocks a practice run for Jerry Carlton.

IN MEMORIAM

Brandt Arthur Lippert

How shocked we all were on October 18, 1964, at the sudden death of one of our classmates — Brandt Lippert. The entire class was appalled and wondered why this tragedy had to happen to one of us.

Perhaps not everyone knew Brandt, but those who did saw a warm smile each time he passed in the hall. Brandt was a "regular guy" — he liked to cut up or just be with his friends and have a good time.

We will all remember Brandt; he was our classmate and our friend. May each of us learn from his untimely death.

We therefore dedicate this page to a boy who will long remain in our hearts.

arrival of their jackets.
Selling pompoms and stationery and making goodies for the bake sale.
Listening to classical music . . . "Hang on Sloopy",
"Shotgun", "Sounds of Silence".
Working very hard on the Class Play and celebrating later.
Getting all you wanted for Christmas,
except a Honda
Being a Junior is being a teen and loving it.

Sophomores

Being a sophomore is being the same and wishing you were different.
Being different and wishing you were the same.
It's meeting new situations, being faced with new responsibilities, and then going ahead to do something about it.
It's having the privilege of eating first lunch, while still trying to digest your breakfast.
It's cutting apart frogs in biology and angles in math.
It's A-1, 3, 4, B and F, with Mr. Viglione and objective complements with Mr. Rifkin.
It's being the first class to get Junior class jackets.
It's working your brains out all year for marks that won't even count.
It's adjusting from being the big guy at the old school to the small guy at the new school.
Being a sophomore is unique, and there are few things a sophomore would rather be; except maybe a junior.
